

United States Court of Appeals
For the Eighth Circuit

No. 16-1240

United States of America,

Plaintiff - Appellee,

v.

Melvin Blackmon,

Defendant - Appellant,

Appeal from United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri - Kansas City

Submitted: June 21, 2016

Filed: June 29, 2016

[Unpublished]

Before COLLOTON, GRUENDER, and KELLY, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Melvin Blackmon directly appeals after the district court¹ revoked his supervised release, and sentenced him to 18 months in prison. For reversal, he argues that the revocation sentence is substantively unreasonable.

Upon careful review, we conclude that the district court did not impose an unreasonable sentence. See United States v. Miller, 557 F.3d 910, 915-17 (8th Cir. 2009); United States v. Merrival, 521 F.3d 889, 890-91 (8th Cir. 2008). Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court. We also grant counsel's motion to withdraw.

¹The Honorable Gary A. Fenner, United States District Judge for the Western District of Missouri.
